

JUNE WINE CLUB

featuring wines from Australia & New Zealand

Villa Maria “Bubbly” Sauvignon Blanc – Marlborough, NZ

The 2016 Villa Maria Bubbly Sauvignon Blanc begins with pretty classic New Zealand Sauvignon Blanc aromas. There’s lots of melon, lemongrass, lime and a little grapefruit. Tasting the wine reveals it to be slightly bubbly, a bit grassy and loaded with lime flavors.

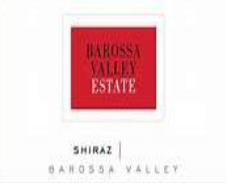

Wither Hills Pinot Noir – Marlborough, New Zealand

Wither Hills 2014 is a juicy and generous Pinot Noir from Marlborough, South Island. This wine is a silky medium-bodied PN with ripe red cherry, red plums and spicy oak flavors on the palate.

Mollydooker “The Scooter” Merlot – McClaren Vale, Australia

This vibrant and lifted Merlot exudes rich plum flavors with undertones of both red and dark fruits with a soft touch of oak. As the wine develops in the glass, layers of chocolate, nutmeg, cinnamon and cardamom spices come to the forefront.

Barossa Valley Estate Shiraz – Barossa Valley, Australia

Black plum with a delightful burst of fresh blueberry, followed by hints of exotic spice. French oak adds a seamless seductive texture and entices further flavor development from the fruit.
