BEERS OF EUROPE

HEINEKEN PALE LAGER

5.0% ABV

Heineken, brewed in Amsterdam, Netherlands (Holland) since 1873, is a super-inoffensive lager with a stronger, bitterer taste than most mass-produced lagers. It's perfectly carbonated, pour a straw yellow color, with little to no head to speak of.

PERONI PREMIUM LAGER

5.2% ABV

Peroni, brewed originally in Lombardy, Italy but now based in Rome, has a unique balanced taste with a delicate aroma arising from the hops of the most exclusive varieties.

NEWCASTLE BROWN ALE

4.7% ABV

First brewed in 1927 in Newcastle-upon-Tyne, now Tadcaster, England, it is slightly sweet and nutty, with pleasant ale esters. It's a lighter bodied brown ale with a rich maltiness to leads to a smooth finish.
